INTRODUCTION

With an eye toward logic and aesthetic pleasure, the 1961 Yonahian has been redesigned and rearranged.

We hope that within this new framework we have preserved a record, as interesting to those not closely associated with Piedmont as it will be to those who are, as pleasing to all as it has been rewarding to those who compiled it, and as memorable to the graduates as we can wish them success.

DEDICATION

The 1961 Yonahian is dedicated with pleasure and sincere gratitude to Miss Lillian McKee.

Seldom are students as fortunate to count among their faculty a woman whose energy and enthusiasm are so often directed into the encouragement of student activities. With wide-ranging interests and an open exploring mind, she has provoked from those who know her intellectual curiosity and social participation. We tender this dedication as small recognition of this limitless energy for the intellectual and social education of Piedmont students.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

On Saturday evening, December 3, our basketball team thrilled all of us by winning a fast and beautifully played game with a typically tall team from Western Carolina. The victory was especially sweet for it was the first time in ten years that one of our quintets defeated these neighboring giants who always have a team which averages 6'4" and more.

Piedmont College has a tradition of winning against big odds. Many of our students throughout our sixty-four years have known the joy of triumph over economic handicaps as they work their way in large part on their own through college. Their practical experiences of blending a genuine desire for an education with the determination of persistent effort strengthen and develop habits of purposefulness which carry over into the years of vocational responsibility after college.

Our graduates make good in business, education, politics, homemaking, religious attitudes, labor and management relations, and professional activities. Most of our graduates know the inner peace and power which come from doing significant and constructive jobs in their communities.

A growing circle of friends have expressed their confidence in the program and forward looking policies of the college by providing tangible tools of strength and equipment, such as endowment funds, current scholarship and work-aid gifts, new houses for the faculty, King Science Hall, and a modern dormitory for ninety-six men and two faculty families—

Wallace Hall. Each year brings a few more of our long range plans into the victory column of reality and developments achieved. Constant cooperation on the part of all who believe in the ideals of quality Christian education for sincere and industrious young people shall continue to triumph over whatever obstacles the days ahead may bring.

Our confidence in the future is not rooted in ourselves alone, even though we acknowledge the essential importance and driving power of one's own desire and personally accepted goals. Our faith is in the living God who has grace and power enough to help us reach in due time every objective which is noble and right for us. In the fellowship of all who share our faith we shall endeavor to be faithful to "the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world."

DRAMA CLUB PRESENTS "J. B."

On Saturday evening, June 4, the Drama Club presented scenes from Archibald MacLeish's Pulitzer Prize drama, "J. B." The play was directed by Mr. James Lindholm, faculty advisor for the club, and the cast included Gayle Smith, Andrew Simon, Fred Steele, Miss Elizabeth Coffee, David Adams, Margaret Puckett, and Mr. Lindholm.

At the sixty-third Graduation Exercises, June and August 1960, fifty-seven seniors received their Bachelor Degrees in the Arts, the Sciences, Elementary Education, Business Administration, and Physical Education. The reward of four years' work and the climax of weeks of preparation, the Commencement Ceremonies were attended by alumni, parents and friends of the graduates, and underclassmen.

In June Alumni Day was celebrated with a special dinner, meeting of both the Board of Trustees and the Alumni Association, and the Drama Club production of "J. B." The Torch Club, an honorary society for Piedmont women, held its annual breakfast at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Percy.

1960 GRADUATION

Three honorary degrees were conferred in June and two in August. In addition the 1960 Library Prize for Poetry was presented by Miss Elizabeth Coffee, college librarian. Seniors graduating with honors and those representing Piedmont College in the annual publication "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" were recognized by President Walter who presided over the ceremonies.

Right: Senior Class President Ashton Godley presented the 1960 class gift to the college library—a world globe and atlas and a selection of books, fiction and non-fiction, chosen by the class and the librarian.

Left: Miss Marilyn Hoffman receives the congratulations of President Walter. Also participating in the ceremonies was Dean O'Neal Cave, Faculty Marshal.

Right: June graduate Edna Vickers, August graduate Hazel Mooney, and Thelma Chastain are presented with Torch Club awards by the alumni President of the society.

The two-story, brick dormitory for men, Wallace Hall, added to the Piedmont College campus this fall was formerly dedicated on Thursday afternoon, October 6, at 3:30. The ceremony was held in the college gymnasium, Dean Ronald E. Weitman presiding. Among the speakers were Dr. William D. Fuller of the Piedmont faculty and Mayor Otis Bouwsma of Demorest.

SOPHOMORES WIN UPSET FIELD DAY VICTORY

The Sophomore Class of 1960-1961 upset the traditional Field Day victory of the Freshman Class by stealing two and a half points out from under the collective noses of the freshmen. The final score was a close 270 to 267½.

The freshmen began the events with a hopeful victory in the class colors, flying their checkered shirt higher in the pines than the sophomores, however, the athletic prowess of the sophomores left the freshmen way behind by the end of the day. The biggest upset of the day was the sophomore victory in the Flag Snatch. Defending the flag for five minutes, the sophomore boys proved too sturdy for all the hordes of freshmen.

Much needed points were gained by the freshmen in the evening stunts and in the competition for dining hall decorations, but the day remained the prize of the Sophomore Class, who retired from competition undefeated as freshmen and sophomores.

THE PIEDMONT OWL

The 1960-1961 Owl has endeavored to retain the high quality of writing established by the staffs of their predecessors. Published twice monthly, the Owl has increased its coverage and circulation to make it a widely known representative of the best at Piedmont College.

Far left: The winners and judges of the Owl Beard Growing Contest: Judges Estella Searing, Miss Mary Griggs, and Mr. James Lindholm stand with bearded staff members and students.

COLLEGE CHOIR

The college choral program is designed with three aims. First is training. Students with no previous training learn to carry a part, then to help weaker members, and eventually to go out as valuable members of church choirs in their home communities. Secondly, the choir provides leadership in chapel and vesper services. Soloists and small ensembles receive additional experience through this medium of expression. Third, publicity. Over the years the choral groups have carried the name of Piedmont College into the high schools of the area while providing musical entertainment for them. The student with ability and a willingness to serve finds many opportunities in a small school such as ours.

THE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

Under the leadership of Dr. Chapman, the International Relations Club was reorganized this year. The purpose of the club is to provide a meeting place for those interested in discussing the world problems. One of the main topics of discussion was the presidential election.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America is a national organization with an active branch here at Piedmont College. The main purposes of this group are:

To develop among your people who are preparing to be teachers an organization which shall be an integral part of state and national education associations;

To give teachers in training practical experience in working together in the democratic way of life.

President of the Leslie C. Jones Chapter: Athon Studdard.

THE E. LOUISE PATTEN SOCIETY

The E. Louise Patten Society is made up of the members of the library staff under the direction of the librarian, Miss Elizabeth Coffee. This year the society has sponsored an autograph reception for Dr. Walter Blackstock whose latest volume of poetry was published last summer, special events during National Library Week, a student poetry contest, and the extension art show from the University of Georgia.

THE DRAMA CLUB

The Drama Club appeared again at Piedmont this year. The new Drama club presented two productions last fall, one at Thanksgiving and one at Christmas. Under the sponsorship of Miss Elsie Davis, the club has presented several plays this spring. Included were "The Chairs" by Eugene Ionesco and "Pyramus and Thisbe" from Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream." The club will also present a full length drama at Commencement.

The Drama Club feels that they have good prospects for the future and look forward to many more productions.

MISS BILLIE BOWLING CHOSEN MISS YONAHIAN 1961

Miss Billie Bowling of Cornelia, Georgia, was crowned Miss Yonahian 1961 at the annual Yonahian Dance in December.

Miss Bowling was escorted by Mr. Larry Wood. Elected by her fellow students, Miss Yonahian is the highest non-academic recognition at Piedmont. She will be the reigning queen of the 1961 yearbook and the representative of the students of Piedmont College. Miss Bowling was crowned by Mrs. Emily Hawk, Miss Yonahian of 1960.

The members of the court were Miss Sandra Scott of Toccoa, Georgia, and Miss Margaret Puckett of Cornelia, Georgia.

The dance was held at the Cornelia Community House.

WINTER

THE "P" CLUB AND CHEERLEADERS

The membership of the "P" Club includes those varsity and junior varsity athletes who have been awarded letters as well as the members of the cheerleading squad. In fostering a spirit of sportsmanship and an interest in varsity competition and intramurals, the

"P" Club performs a valuable service to the college. The annual Homecoming Dance and the election of Homecoming Queen is also sponsored by this organization.

VARSITY BASKETBALL 1961

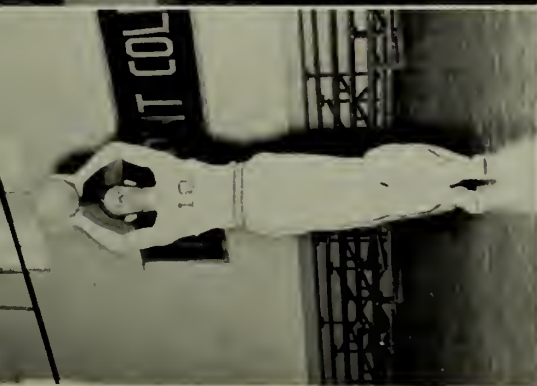

With unusual team spirit and determination, the 1960-1961 Piedmont Lions completed their season with a fine record and the assurance of second place in the G.I.A.C. Coached by O'Neal Cave and Dean Sheetz, the team played good fast ball all season, defeating some of the best teams in the conference.

As representatives of Piedmont the team has likewise performed well, bringing the Piedmont spirit to neighboring colleges.

THE STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Student Christian Association is to encourage and promote all phases of Christian life on the campus. Meetings are held weekly and the curriculum of the organization includes many projects which are beneficial to the college and the community.

Organized this year under the direction of Dr. Brizendine, the Piedmont Ministerial Fellowship is open to all those who are interested in the ministry and other church-related vocations.

Programs of discussion and interview are planned to broaden the understanding of the student concerning these vocations. Hollis Benfield served as chairman during the winter and spring quarters. It is hoped that this organization will be an important part of the campus.

THETA ZETA PHI SOCIETY

The year 1960-1961 has been a successful one for the Theta Zeta Phi Society. They began with a get-acquainted party for the new girls on campus at the home of the Theta Zeta Phi's sponsor, Mrs. Mildred Davis. Later in the year they entertained their brother society, the J. S. Greens with a party at the Davis's cabin on Seed Lake. The foundations of our club are love, idealism, and friendship. We look forward to even more successful years in the future filled with happiness and fun for all.

THE J. S. GREEN SOCIETY

This year proved to be very prosperous for the J. S. Green Society. This includes the defeat of the Pro-tropians in the annual basketball game by a score which we will not embarrass them by printing.

The Greens' insured future success and supremacy by receiving one of the finest group of freshmen ever initiated in the society. A factor in this acquisition was a large party given in the early weeks of school. The society sponsored several socials and co-sponsored with their sisters, the Theta Zeta's, the Miss Yonahian Dance.

The goal is to continue service to Piedmont College for the good of the college and its students.

MAKE THE MOST OF THE DAY

The Gamma Chi Literary Society began its activities before school opened for the fall quarter. Prior to the fall registration the members wrote letters of welcome to all girls planning to enter Piedmont for the first time. During the first week of school, the Gamma Chi's joined with their brothers, the Protropians, in welcoming and honoring the new students with a tea and cookout.

The organization has stressed its literary aims by presenting a program at every meeting. One major money-making project selling candy was successfully completed. The proceeds have been used for the society's projects.

The following officers and advisors have led the group this year: President Glenda Pritchett; Vice-President Vernetta Alley; Secretary-Treasurer Rudene Alley; Program Chairman Shirley Hamby; Advisors Miss Lillian McKee and Dr. Elizabeth Sawyer.

THE PROTROPIAN SOCIETY

Presidents: Andy Simon and Guerry Strickland.

Under the leadership of Andy Simon and Guerry Strickland, the Protropian Men's Literary Society completed another successful year. With new members from the freshmen class and transferring upperclassmen, the society carried on its tradition of service and camaraderie established in its long history at Piedmont. Their sister society, the Gamma Chi's, have joined in events adding substantially to the social life of the campus. Members of the society have been active in the Drama Club, the Owl, the Yonahian, the Student Association, FTA, SCA, and Choir. It is the hope of the Protropians that an increasing interest in campus activities will be maintained at Piedmont and that the building of our college through fellowship will remain a major goal in the mind of each new member of the society.

SPRING

THE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

As a direct and representative organ of student opinion and interest, the Student Association can only function with the complete support of its members. The officers spearhead the organization's concern with effective student government through the various committees, with student social life in the annual dances and other campus entertainment, and with athletic competition in the inter-collegiate basketball and baseball programs. We appreciate the cooperation of the students, faculty, and administration making this past year's Association the success it was and extend our good wishes for the future.

MYRON BULLOCK

At a student assembly on Friday, December 9, Dean Weitman formally announced the nominees for Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Selected by a faculty committee, the four nominees were chosen on the basis of scholarship, participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, citizenship, and services to the school, and promise of future usefulness. The candidates this year are Thelma Chastain Goolsby, Guerry Strickland, David Adams, and Myron Bullock.
